

WISH LIST

Listed below are items needed to operate the various programs of the S. June Smith Center.

General / Office Needs

- Four-door, automatic vehicles
- Battery tester
- Heavy duty folding machine
- Reams of white copy paper
- White, three-ring binders
- Office supply store gift cards
- Gas gift cards
- Tissues
- Toilet Paper
- Toy and craft store gift cards
- 4X6 photo albums
- Batteries (C and 9-Volt)
- Children's battery operated toothbrushes
- Play-doh
- Baby wipe refills

Infant / Toddler Program

Infant and toddler early intervention involves parents and caregivers as active partners with their therapists and educators.

- Boppies
- Booster seats
- Hand sanitizer
- Touch and feel cardboard books
- First Signs cardboard books
- Wooden puzzles of simple shapes
- Two-inch wooden blocks with letters and pictures
- Velco, washable finger paints and bubbles

Pre-School Program

Our early intervention pre-school classrooms use developmentally-appropriate curricula and activities to assist with children age three to school age in achieving developmental goals.

- Paints and large-sized crayons
- Poster board
- Magnadoodles, Aquadoodles
- Dora or Diego game packs
- One-inch binders
- Balls (all shapes, sizes and textures)
- Vibrating teethingers
- Small computer table
- Color printer with digital camera port
- Floam, bean bags, punch balloons or koosh balls
- Children's music CD's
- Clear contact paper
- Heavy construction, various colors (8.5 X 11 or 9 X 12)
- Heavy construction paper, white (12 X 18)
- Cardstock, various colors and sizes
- Laminating machine
- Play food and utensils
- Harmonicas and whistles
- Hula hoops
- Divided storage units for supplies
- Clear, plastic storage containers (shoe box size)
- Weighted or adapted eating utensils
- Scotch painters tape
- Foam fun buckets (shapes, numbers, and seasonal)
- Orange cones for playground
- Non-skid doormat

T3 = Tinker, Touch and Taste

The small group program creates opportunities for children to have fun exploring food through touch and taste.

- Plastic cups (3 oz. size)
- Plastic or paper bowls, small napkins
- Plastic bags (snack size)
- Plastic spoons and forks
- Whistles
- Small handheld mirrors
- Flavored chapstick
- Wipes

SPLASH Class

This adaptive and interactive story time helps children and caregivers celebrate language growth for all abilities.

- Craft foam sheets
- Feathers
- Tape, white glue and glue sticks
- One-inch foam paint brushes
- Card stock
- Small napkins and paper plates (white)
- Plastic spoons and straws
- Plastic cups (3 oz. size)
- Washable paints
- Blank music CD's and cases
- Paper lunch bags
- Handheld vacuum cleaner
- Plastic bags (snack, quart, or gallon size)
- Plastic spoons and forks
- Large craft sticks (natural color)
- Foil lasagna pans
- Plastic bags (snack, quart and gallon size)
- Balloons
- Mesh sponges

Project Together

Project Together personalizes learning opportunities for children through building community, friendships and possibilities in school and community-based settings.

- Black and white checkered tablecloths, table skirts and racing flags
- Race car favor bags
- Checkered flag pins, cups and napkins
- Three-ring navy blue binders
- Eight, white large tab dividers

Tiny Miracles

Tiny Miracles parent volunteers assist families in the difficult transition from the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit to the home by providing financial assistance and emotional support.

- Dr. Brown's bottles and nipples
- Fleece or flannel baby blankets
- Fleece material
- Chicco Key Fit Infant car seats
- Filing cabinet
- Hanging and manila file folders
- Two-inch three ring binders
- Tab dividers
- Sheet protectors
- Plastic storage bins
- Infant-sized hats and booties
- Premie clothes
- Blue or pink gift bags
- Scrapbooking supplies

Please send donations to:

S. June Smith Center
600 Eden Road, Building I
Lancaster, PA 17601

For more information on how to make an in-kind donation to the S. June Smith Center or specifically to one of these programs, please contact Elyse Kauffman, Director of Development at 717-299-4829 or via email at ekauffman@sjunesmith.com.

Thank you for supporting our children and their families!